Subject : Latest Update On MII Operations Following Movement Control Order - Recovery Phase (RMCO)

Following the announcement made by the Prime Minister of Malaysia on 7 June 2020 regarding the further extension of the nationwide novel coronavirus (COVID-19) Movement Control Order, The Malaysian Insurance Institute (MII) will be continue to close until 30 June 2020. This includes the MII City Centre (Wisma FGV) and all other MII examination centres in East Malaysia and WestMalaysia.

MII's Commitment To Our Community Of Students And Participants As We Navigate Through The Coronavirus (COVID-19) Outbreak

Examinations and programmes scheduled to be held within the movement control order period will be deferred to a later date and release of results will be deferred to April 2020 onwards. Examination candidates and programme participants who have registered will be notified of the postponement and rescheduling arrangements via phone call and email. The main communication channel to receive updates will be via email and our website. We will allow for maximum flexibility as well as waive cancellation fees arising from the dynamic coronavirus (COVID-19) situation.

The guidance and information above may change at short notice and any changes will be communicated at the earliest opportunity as MII has a dedicated working group who are monitoring the situation on an on-going basis. As there may also be changes to scheduled examinations and programmes for the months of April and May, kindly visit our website for latest updates.

Examinations and programmes that are impacted by the government order include:

Licensing Examinations

- Pre-Contract Examination for Insurance Agents (PCEIA)
- Certificate Examination in Investment-Linked Life Insurance (CEILLI)
- Pre-Contract for Life Insurance Agents Examination and Investment-Linked Life Insurance (PCIL)

Professional Qualification Programmes

- Certificate of The Malaysian Insurance Institute (CMII)
